New Business:

- nut free school is over.
- get Shannon to email parents agenda & minutes
- cell phone policy. What grade do we want to see cell phones allowed? Parent input? Naama will write an email to send out to parents.
- why isn't there a phone in Roxy's room anymore? Some parents would like a phone for kids to call home after school.
- code of conduct for PAC
- gaming grant still unknown
- MS graduate bursary. We will discuss again after financials are in order.
- school supplies- class lists need to be updated.
- financial report- treasurer Kevin has resigned his position. Jeanette is willing to stand as treasurer. Dayna is plugging through on the finances
- microwaves is a topic of discussion. Any opinions?
- Heather says spoons are needed for the kitchen. Dayna suggested she check with the hot lunch program for funds.
- The kitchen is a mess. Dirty dishes in the sinks are a problem. Teachers to get involved in getting their students cleaning up after themselves.
- Dayna is planning more cooking nights. Parent volunteers could receive hot lunch vouchers for their kids to use.

- Freezer? Heather says we need an outlet. A work order needs to be put in.
